NEW YORK TIMES* BESTSELLING AUTHOR TERESA MEDEIROS RELEASES HER 17th NOVEL *THE VAMPIRE WHO LOVED ME

THE VAMPIRE WHO LOVED ME, the seventeenth novel and eagerly awaited sequel to AFTER MIDNIGHT by New York Times bestselling author Teresa Medeiros, will begin appearing on bookstore shelves nationwide on September 26, 2006.

In THE VAMPIRE WHO LOVED ME, Portia Cabot comes face to face with dashing vampire Julian Kane for the first time in five years. Julian quickly discovers that the enchanting young girl who once sacrificed herself to save him has grown into a bewitching woman with a woman's heart...and a woman's desires. But Julian is not the vampire Portia remembers and a recent spate of murders makes Portia fear that the man she has always adored may truly be a monster. New York Times bestselling author Sherrilyn Kenyon says the book is "an enchanting tale guaranteed to touch your heart" while Romantic Times magazine calls it a "spellbinding tale that mesmerizes with masterful writing and unforgettable characters." THE VAMPIRE WHO LOVED ME has been chosen as a Main Selection of the Rhapsody Book Club and a featured selection of the Doubleday and Sci Fi Book Clubs.

All of Teresa's books have been national bestsellers, appearing on the New York Times, Publishers Weekly and USA Today bestseller lists and ranking in the Top 10 on the Waldenbooks, B. Dalton, Wal-Mart, Ingram and Newsday mass market lists. She was recently chosen as one of the Top Ten Favorite Romance Authors by Affaire de Coeur magazine and won the Romantic Times Reviewer's Choice Award for "Best Historical Love and Laughter". She has been published in seventeen languages and is a seven-time RITA finalist, two time PRISM winner, and two-time recipient of the Waldenbook Award for bestselling fiction.

Teresa recently signed a contract with Avon Books for two more novels. Her next novel is scheduled to be released in October 2007.
